

Hello Baby Application

This program is for CBU Students who are soon expecting or have a child up to two years of age. Each family will be provided with up to 85$ worth of essential baby supplies. This amount will be given to 30 chosen applicants a semester and is available to students once per fiscal year (May 1st-April 30th)

Conditions:

- Applicants must be current fees-paying Students' Union members with a valid student ID.
- Applicants can be expecting a child or already have children.
- Age restrictions apply; student's children must be no older than two years of age.
- Proof of the child's age must be provided. Examples of acceptable identification include birth certificates and government IDs.
- Student ID numbers will be checked with the registrar's office.
- The complete form must be filled out.
- The application will not be considered if all information is not provided Only essential items will be bought (see next page for examples).
- Due to the restricted number of applications, spots will be filled on a first come first serve basis.
- Students may be asked to meet with the Students' Union Hello Baby Committee.
- Students must respond to confirmation emails within two weeks, or their spot will be given to another applicant.
- If items are not picked up within two weeks of being notified, their items will be given to another applicant.

The Hello Baby committee will assess the applicant's application and approve the request by a  $\frac{2}{3}$  majority.

I hereby declare that I acknowledge and understand these conditions, and I am an eligible candidate for the CBU student's Union Hello Baby Program.
