

JOB POSTING CBU STUDENTS' UNION

CHIEF RETURNING OFFICER

The Cape Breton University Students' Union is presently seeking a Chief Returning Officer for the 2017-2018 academic term. The Chief Returning Officer (CRO) will be responsible for the following:

- Shall have jurisdiction for the conduct of the complete electoral process according to the Students' Union Bylaws and the Elections Act;
- Shall abstain from all partisanship and act in an impartial manner;
- Will be the Chairperson of the Elections Committee;
- Shall validate the results of any electorate decision;
- Shall validate election results by officially announcing the results of a vote within twenty four (24) hours after the closing of the polls;
- Shall hold a meeting for candidates to clarify regulations with respect to any and all issues pertaining to campaigning and/or elections;
- Shall post the dates of elections and nominations and shall provide for printing of ballots for the election.

Anyone who is interested in this position is asked to submit their resume to Eleanor Sidley, President of the CBU Students' Union, no later than Tuesday, November 28th before 4 p.m.

"Our Cause is Just. Our Union is Strong"